ANGLO-AMERICAN FUBLISHED EVERY DAY WITH THE

EXCEPTION OF SUNDAY, y the Anglo-American Publishing Company, President.

Sociedad Anonima.

RAFAEL R. SPINDOLA,

Editorial Rooms:-Cor. First Plateros and Second Palma Sts. (Fourth Floor,) Universal

Businets Department: - No 17 Cinco de Mayo, same office as the Pacific Mutual of Cali-

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: One year in the city One year in interior One year in the United States or Great Britain Single Copies. saturday's double sheet

All subscriptions less than one year in the city 90 cents; in the country $1.00 per month. Notice to Subscribers. - Remit in draft on New York or London, and where neither of these can be procured send the money in a "registered" letter. All money remitted at risk of sender. In order to insure attention subscribers wishing their addresses changed must give their old as well as their new address. The ANGLO-AMERICAN will be delivered in all parts of the city by carriers for 90 cents per month. Where delivery is irregular please make immediate complaint to the office.

Terms invariably in advance. Correspondence of a newsy nature solicited. Anonymous communications for publication will on their arrival be immediately dumped into the waste basket. Persons presenting bills not signed and stamped by the business department will not be recognized by the management.

JACKSON & GRAHAM,

MANAGING DIRECTORS AND EDITORS. All matters relating to business should be ad

FRED. NAVARRO, BUSINESS MANAGER & ADVERTISING AGENT. No. 17. Calle del Cinco de Mayo. P. O. Box 853, Mexico.

dressed to

Tuesday November 3, 1891

"IF you want the news, read the Anglo-American"—quoted by J. Mastella Clarke in the Two Republics June

Mr. Froude's sympathies have been | considerable sum. enlisted on behalf of a project for the organization of a Pan Anglo-Saxon Festival, in which Great Britain, and | changes railroad tickets to and from | her Colonies, and the United States, all points in the United States. Be city. He expects to leave shortly for "industry, athletics, and culture." American Ticket Brokers' A socia-The idea is interesting; whether it is tion. also practicable only experiment can Higginson, or Mr. Walter Besant and | Mexicana. Mr. Henry James writing novels in The trial of Mr. E. Adams, who shot Mexican Central Railway at Silao, all through the place, praying and The third night we slept in the strength. The following are the Sexon Champion. In its purely to take place. The plea is to be in. | Pacific Railroad. atheltic aspects the scheme is, as sanity A great deal of powerful evidoubt, more feasible; but enthusiasts dence in support of the plea, it is un- of the Sonora News Company's inits effects upon the Federation of the | trial. World. After all, the Olympian hope that Canadian fishery disputes & Company." Messrs. Samuel M. can be helped to adjust themselves by Scherer and Carlos Scherer are the ticket agent of the Mexican National high-jumps and hurdle-races, or that associate partners, and the latter gen- railroad, is expected to return in a few the young men who raise the cry of themen will be personally in charge of days from a trip to the United States "Australia for the Australians" will the business affairs. | Mr. W. H. Monroe and his son be shamed into silence, because their

THE TOUAT OASIS.

of the Touat casis by the Sultan of songs for the occasion. Morocco and to-day's dispatches say | The other day in Real del Monte gland's troubles in the Soudan. The scattered about for yards. tween Algeria and Senegal.

This region is traversed by caravans, | mien. which journey from the Soudan to with caution, not wishing to arouse lars could be learned."

the suspicion of the French.

more slaves, and the Sultan pretend- any alarming extent. ed to believe that the submission or plished fact.

New York.

Mexico, Oct. 28, 1891. The offices of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York have been removed from Lerdo street No. 2 to Angel street No. 2.

AMERICAN.

Director General. Advertise in the Daily Anglo-

CHAS. SOMMER,

FRAGMENTS.

Y. M. C. A. sociable to-night. Crowds of visitors passed the feast days in San Luis Potosi.

Roadmaster Flynn, of the Central, was in the city yesterday. A new bishoprick is to be established in the State of Chihuahua. Mr. E. Milliken has taken a contract on the Southern Railroad. Mr. Chas. Starr has gone to work for the Mexican Central Railroad.

The electric light in Pachuca still $ 9,00 centinues to give the best of satisfac-Vocal and instrumental music at sociable to-night in Y. M. C. A

Games, music and refreshments to | night at the Y. M. C. A. free sociable | at 8 o'clock. Remember the free sociable of the Y. M. C. A. to-night, at its hall west of the Jardin Hotel. The motive power of the Central is being taxed to the utmost to handle the increasing business. It is said that the Zapadores band, in returning trom Portland, Oregon, Financial News.

will give two concerts in El Paso. Mr. John J. Burke, the popular passenger conductor of the Central, is confined to his room with a malarial,

There was a bull-fight in Pachuca on Sunday night, the novel feature | National. of which was it was conducted by the electric light. Coffee, home-made cake and doughnuts and a jolly social time are promised for the Y. M. C. A. free suciable to-night.

A bull got loose in Ixtlahuancillo, State of Vera Cruz, the other day and cleared the streets in his mad career.

Several people were badly gored. Major R. B. Gorsuch beautifully decorated many of the graves in the American cemetery yesterday. The Stewart's Ticket Office, opposite the the city. Iturbide Hotel, buys, sells and exshall hold amicable contests in sure and see them. Member of the London.

Robert Burnham, E. M., well known; prove. Certainly the most daring in the southwest, will shortly establish the United States. imagination fluds it difficult to picture | metalurgical and testing works in Lord Tennyson and Mr. Swinburne Chihuahua. This will fill a long the Hacienda de San Francisco in Pacomposing odes in competition with felt want. Mr. Burnham's office will chuca and the well known milling ex-Mr. Walt Whitman and Miss Emily be with the Compania Industrial pert, is a guest of the Iturbile.

nesian war; and it is too much to ber 21, under the firm name of Scherer States.

19th, in Orrin's Theatre, meet for re- on the contract which they are at prehearsal at the residence of R. M. Ruth | sent engaged upon. A few days ago a dispatch gave next Friday evening. The Amphion particulars of the intended occupation | Quartette are practicing some fine |

ing Muley Hassan's claim to the with a streak of fire in his wake for a and Tidikelt are grouped together, in this city this morning by the Cenand have a population of about two [tral express: M. V. Cover, Mexican] from France the shortest route be- Francisco Mallen, Ciudad Juarez: Luis Casanova, Chihuahua; Leon Cic-

The El Paso Herald of October 27th Morocco. It has been a refuge for says: "Report was received at the the enemies of the French. From | Herald office this afternoon of the Insalah, its chief center, went forth murder of an American on the line of the signal for the massacre of La the Mexican Central, between Juarez week. The blast pipe will be put with mountains on either side. Mission Flatters and of Lieut. Palut. and Chihuahua. The American was After these massacres the Touatians said to be an employe of the line in were for some time afraid of reprisals, the road and bridge department. The and consequently flooked toward the Mexican Central authorities at Juarez the largest on the American continent. dangers beset me fore and aft; one moprotection. Muley Hassau replied | matter, and consequently no particu-

The man who wrote and sent the In 1886 the Djemaa of Touat sent a celebrated dispatch to Mr. Geronimo message to the Sultan, in which the Pou, the late Salvadorian Minister to chiefs declared that he was their this Republic, from Acapulco, during sovereign. Next year there was the war between Salvador and Guateanother embassy with a present of mala, is in the city. The dispatch slaves. Muley Hassan said he would was to the effect that he would not did not want that by any means; they affairs of Guatemala, but Mr. Pou was much be Manuel Hermosillo and Mathat reminds me that I had eggs and lighter order was given; the aria from ed a goal had not McNeill been in annex the territory, but the Touatians allow Mr. Pou to interfere in the did not want that by any means; they affairs of Guatemaia, but Mr. Fou was desired protection. In 1888, envoys, at liberty to communicate with him at will be run over the Vera Cruz railt cibly reminded of ship life, and almost most popular. went through the whole region and rious man went "to control" the Amer- road on the same day from this city, involuntarily muttered, "Steward, compelled a species of tribune under ican press on some $10,000, which he Round trip tickets good for the figh- I'm so ill! bring, oh, bring me a" the preteuse of making an offering to was reported to have received from will also be sold. Programmes for when I recovered myself, gave my the chief religious ruler of Morocco. Barillas. It is useless to say that he the fight will be received in this city faithful animal a good lick with the They returned to Fez in 1889 with did not control the Amrican press to from Puchla within a day or two.

The El Paso Herald has in a recent annexation of Touat was an accom- issue the following mining item: "Dr. The Mutual Life Insurance Company of here yesterday. Dr. McLeish states unbles, merchandise, etc., to Celaya, ing an average of 40 onnees of silver to quarrel, mum." that mining operations in that section San Luis, Monterey and all local per ton, whilst 18 inches of the vein of the country are looking up, and points; also to the United States, Ca. contains "pellangui" and "rosicler," rel about?" that the mines were producing well. nada and Europe, in advance of any valuing two to three thousand dollars terest in the coming miners' conven- Order from Europe and the United by the youthful Spaniards, but my tion to be held in this city, and many States by the United States Express friend had run down a new shaft and of them would be in attendance. They Co., or the Pacific Express o, For struck fresh ore. were more than hopeful for the re- rates, etc., call on any agent of the The first night we slept at a place sults, that they were positive would Company, or, be obtained. The dector himself said be well handled."

| Mortgage Company of Mexico, Limited, the authorized capital being £250,160 in 50,000 ordinary shares of £5 each, and 100 founders' shares of £1 each. The company is formed for the purpose of making investments by way of mortgages on freehold property, on loans to corporations, and on local and municipal northern States of Chihuahua and Sonora. The prospectus states that Messrs. Macmanus & Sons, a banking firm established in Chihuahua for more than twenty years, will act as the company's agents and local bankers, and they and their friends will subscribe for 10,000 shares, issue is 25,000 ordinary shares and we are informed that allotment letters for the latter as well as for 15,-000 ordinary shares, subscribed for by the founders and their friends, have already been posted.—London

PERSONAL.

Col. A. K. Owen, of Topolobampo fame, arrived in the city this morning from New York.

Mr. A. A. Fox, the dynamite dealer, has returned from a business trip to the interior. Col. L. Lamar, the popular contractor, has arrived in the city and will spend a few days here Mr. C. J. Husted has been appoint ted train dispatcher at Silao, for the | Central, vice A. J. Borie resigned. the tombs of the dead represented a gaged in laying out the line of Gen- I let them rip. eral Sturm's proposed belt line around

> Mr. Frederick Pool has returned from Durango and at present is in the Misses Ayres and Loyd, of the Methedist Mission, left yesterday via join the priesthood. the Mexican National Railroad for Mr. M. P. Boss, principal owner of

Mr. A. J. Borie, dispatcher for the Gerard Van Mourick, representative Father Stiggins two laps ahead.

The members of the R. M. L. A., George O Monroe, the well known

The Mexican Metallurgical Company.

Potosi, as follows:

a few days. It is 4 1-2 feet in dia- and then the up and down business meter and when completed will be commences, although in the saddle, We have two 200-horse power engines, ment my mule's head is away down which will furnish force for all the out of sight and I have to get out my machinery. In fact everything here spectacles to see where she has put it, on the works is progressing most sa- and the next her noble crest is away

Bull-Fight in Puebla,

The National Express.

J. M. Nixon,

The prospectus is i-sued of the He Writes on Miners and Mules and will Study for the Priesthood. Bermoa, Durango, Oct. 26th, 1891.

Editors Anglo-American: Dear Sirs: In my last letter, I took a long and affectionate adies of you with an island in the centre; on one all before plunging, accompanied by side of the island, the water ran down Madre," and before going into any lot of pigs were on the bank intending rates in Mexico, but at the outset its question of my sufferings in this pil- to get over to the island; the first one operations will be; confined to the grimage, I wish to give you a histori- dropped into the water and let itself cal description of the place I am | be carried down, swimming to a shoal leaving, to wit, "Santiago Papasquia- from whence it got to the island, and ro." You will find the name easily they all, one by one followed suit; one Nov. 4: on the man of Durango, from the fact | little pig was not strong enough, and of its covering about half the map.

> unable to give me any information as out on the island. to the derivation of the name, so I am a brigand) and posterity joined papa | plation of the stream. Santiago in the business as well in [7 giving a name to the town. The church is very old and has on | Spaniards populous towns, "Presidio

the patron Saint of the town and of and were entirely peopled in olden Baldwin E W old Spain--Saint James. The Saint times by Spaniards. Mr. Geo. D. Barron leaves to-day is mounted on horseback and is twirlfor San Luis Potosi via the Mexican ing his lasso around above his head, ago, raided all through this country; a with the evident intention of roping Little beyond the Presidios we came semething in the distance.

as if he meant business.

quiaro" or "Papasquiaro sur Santia- into to defend themselves from the In- Soriane Dr go"--anyhow the town and river seem dians. AN ANGLO-SAXON EISTEDDFOD. display of flowers that he placed up in Mr. W. H. Hamilton is busily ento get along comfortably together, so devoutest of the devout, and as the ros."

in praying for rain. They walked of danger.

change of the moon,

but the minister said, "Do not, dear smell particularly briny. that the French government will at some Mexican miners attached a giant H. A. Baer, writes from the Mexican must have prayed a little too hard, on the 12th of September last.

"We were delayed at first owing to gin." oases of Gourara, Aougerot, Touat The following passengers arrived We are now working 54 Americans and I hope it anything is going to it was the coldest. from Kanzas City putting the brick pal streets of the town, scattering hood—and to still consider me. in them, and they have one nearly dogs and chickens to the four winds of completed. The furnace house is 220 | heaven, and then we settle down and | by 52 feet and it is principally iron, jog along through a great valley that and we will start crecting it next looks like the bed of some great river, > up, and I feel a sort of sliding away sensation, as if I were about to do a toboggan slide backwards over her A grand bull-fight will be given caudel appendage; then she catches in Puebla next Sunday for the flood me before I have got on the slide and lections being rendered from the stansufferers of Consuegra. The espadas jerks me forward with a movement whip and felt better.

In my first day's ride, I came to a mine belonging to a friend of mine, The Mexican National Express has which produces the richest ore as a you leave your last place?" J. McLeish, the well known mining special messengers on the "Aztec Li- body I have ever seen, (rich pyrites), operator of Sabinal, Mexico, returned mited," hence can transport val- an ore body of three metres wide, giv. ful way the master and missus used are so stiff in the legs, but they will The Americans were taking great in other company. Give us a trial per ton. The mine had been worked cooked, mum!"

called "Valde de Dios," and the gen. well of you." tleman, who extended his hospitality | "What do you suppose I care what that he would be here, and he was Superintendent, Ortega 28, MexicoCity. to us for a consideration, bagged half an ass like Smith thinks of me?"

sure that the silver question would THE JOURNEYS OF MR. FREDERICK POOL. our dried beef necessary for the jour-

The second night we slept in the woods, gigantic pines and oaks, with the gentle zephyrs of heaven and

The third day we crossed a river,

Santiago resided in this vicinity, and with his revolver, the bird looked tillo. was the papa of Mr. Squiero, and that round inquiringly at Mr. West, stood this latter gentleman immortalized on one leg for a minute or two and himself in some manner, (probably as then resumed its melancholy contem- p. m. We struck two pueblos close to one l

its tower a picture in basso relieve of del Alto" and "Presidio del Abajo," on Moneda street this morning: The Indians, down to twenty years | Bock C Co

another that were in the time of the

to a town with a record. Schaffer C The basso relieve in this particu- On the occasion of the first Indian Arochig R lar, is so indistinct that I cannot po- invasion by the Comanches, this town Bahnsen George sitively assert whether the animal to displayed the white flug, joined the Creinhofer J T be roped is a cow or a crocodile, but Indians and raided down with them Harzog Federico whatever it may be, the Saint looks through the valley to Durango, loot- Jerry William ing all the towns as they went. The Lubbock A I am also uncertain if the town is name of this heroic little town is Car- Botschen Arthur called Santiago and the river Papas- reras. In all the pueblos along the Miller Victor quiaro or vice-versa—whether a la route, round towers with loopholes, Oldham T M Francaise, it is "Santiago sur Papas- still remain that the people retired Relly Samuel R

All along this district they raise enormous quantities of chilies, and the The people of this town are the inhabitants are known as "Chilire-priest is reputedly rich at over one I have decided in my own mind, hundred thousand dollars and owns a that mules have a wonderful facility bunch of cows, I have a strong incli- for acquiring foreign languages, but nation to pitch up the mining busi- I have found after careful considera- 2nd, 1891. ness, cut a ring around my head and tion that the English language has a Editors Anglo-American: more southing effect on the front It seems there has been a great end of the animal than on the back. Cristobal Swifts." drought in the country for some time Standing at the rudder end of my A friendly game at football took and the crops were suffering for want mule, if I muttered a word of my na- place at San Cristobal on the 1st. of of rain, so a few days before I arrived, tive tongue, signs of ominous portent November between the above named the priest had organized a procession were visible in the nervous whisk-clubs. The day was very fine and and invited the faithful to assist him ing of her dust-brush that warned me the attendance of spectators very friendly rivalry, with a view to a the French waiter at the National has resigned, to accept the position of chanting and the rain came down open, outside a palatial residence com- names of the players. gold medal and the title of Anglo-Restaurant nearly a year ago, is soon division superintendent on the Union heavily, so nearly all of them got posed of adobe, inhabited by fleus and Pearson's Wanderers.—General P. will do well not to be over-sanguine of derstood, will be forthcoming at the tcrests in Monterey, will reach this Editor? Why don't they try the effi- two hind legs to a tree, so high that San Cristobal Swifts, --General Li-Mr. C. P. Barrett, the popular that the holy Father evidently studied | wouldn't tame anything, I don't | & Lucey. astronomy and artfully waited for the know what would! Notes.—It is necessary to explain

The next day we continued our that many of the Swifts had never This reminds me of a minister in course south by north east-32 west- played at football before, and conse

FREDERICK POOL. (Of Zimapan).

The Concert Last Night. in place by El Paso workmen within | We quickly come to the mountains, da last night was quite a brilliant affair. The covered space around the central fountain was filled with a gay crowd of promenaders who laugh- hands to throw the ball in, instead of ed, talked and flirted to the music of kicking it Edmundo displayed a the military band. Electric lights great knowledge of the game, and Illuminated the animated scene.

Among the people there were gen-unfortunately not in the right direcerals, jurists and diplomats, who min- tion. gled with folks of lesser note in the most democratic fashion.

The music was especially good, semost popular.

after 10.30 o'clock and the illuminat- between his legs. ed walks of the park were soon filled with the homeward-bound promenad-

Cook: "I couldn't stand the dread- sidering that some of the members

Lady: "What used they to quar- the next mutch takes place. Cook: "The way the dinner was

"What do you think of Smith?"

"I think he is a very bright fel-

FLOATING POPULATION

Hotel Arrivals. Hotel Iturbide .-- C. J. Sahner, Lonthe song of the coyotes to lull us to don; Rob. Jenkins, Wm. Willmore Zumpango; A. K. Owen, New York; L. Crimim, Paris; H. Delemie.

Hotel del Jardin .-- Martin Conrad. Chicago; W. H. Corthell, United my mule, into the wilds of the "Sierra a sluice in quite a strong volume; a States; Tamborrell, Chihuahua; R. L. Widney and wife, Los Angeles, Cal.

National Railroad Passengers. The following is the passenger movement on the Aztec Limited and arrivals in this city, to-morrow,

Mr. Halberson, H. B. Wion, C. O. with frightful squealing was carried Brin, Ventura J. Treviño, Carlos Mar-Even the cldest inhabitant has been over the shoal, but he managed to get | tinez, Monterey; Felipe Salazar, Samuel Zayas, Matamoros; G. C. There were brown and grey herons | Vauden, Mrs. G. C. Vauden, Ed. while the principal partner will join left to my own devices, and have ar- on the stream and wild ducks. My Vauden, Walter Vauden, Villa Lerdo; the board as a director. The first rived at the conclusion that Senor friend, Mr. West, shot at a grey heron Dr. Ismachl, J. R. Chalkley, Sal-

Central Railroad Passengers. No passenger list received up to 3

Letter List.

Letters for the following foreigners were advertised at the local post office Browne William Cuzner James Crane M J L Huntington J J Puggan Breen Knapp E W Smith Jerome Smith J J Wagner E G

Buckel Charles Cromwell C L Fligneau Pedro J Hoffman A Johnston Kittie Balkam S J Levy PT Mathews James T Poirier Ed

Ruiz Carlos M

Smith Joseph

Sutherland A H Smith E. Breakspeare. HELD FOR POSTAGE. Flinn M Lillie.

Football at San Cristobal. SAN CRISTOBAL, Mexico, November

"Pearson's Wanderers" vs. "San wet through and had to bolt home, other rodents. They had a wild pig Ryan, Captain, backs, D. McNeill & they had caught in the woods and to M. Ryan, hallbacks, Collin and More, How about the rain-makers, Mr. tame it, as they said, had tied it's forwards, Kane, Barr, Doyle & Day.

city to-morrow morning, after a two cacy of prayer instead of disturbing it could just touch the ground with zard, (Capt.) back, Bacon, halfbacks, A new banking firm has commenc- months visit to his home in Detroit the Almighty with bombs and other it's fore legs; they also added, that Turmston & Edmonds, forwards, games did not prevent the Pelopon- ed business at San Felipe Neri, Num. and the principal cities of the United fiveworks? Why do we live in this keeping it so for three days without Clarke. Bailey, Payne, Chapman and age of unbelief; oh why? I may add food tamed it completely. If that Leadley. Umpires Messrs, Menziro

the States who invited his parishion- and passed up over a very high quently were at a disadvantage, but ers to join him in praying for rain; mountain, the "Papudos," from whence they played remarkably well, consichampion has been defeated by an who are preparing for the entertain- contractors, left the city this morn- they prayed, and a violent rain you get a sniff of sea breeze and also dering that the Warderers had just sterm came on followed by a storm of a distant view of the Pacific Ocean. I returned from a trip to Europe where hail that cut all their crops to pieces. did not see anything, but they say | they had praticed for some months. The faithful flock began to mnrmur, you can; nor did the sniff of sea-breeze | The result of practice was exemplified by Kane, who was so swift and nimble brethren and dearer sisters, blame Before arriving at the "Papudos" in action that a spectator would have In a private letter to one of the the inscrutible ways of the Almighty. we crossed a corn belt that had all imagined that at one time he must editors of the Anglo-American, Mr It may have been our own faults; we been killed by a frost that occurred have belonged to a Mountebank show. once take armed possession of the ter- powder cap to a dog's tail and then Metallurgical works, near San Luis we should have slacked up a little I am now well posted on frosts; the lin Davine, and it was owing to the The same thing was observed in Coljust when the rain was about to be- first night we slept out we had a white ability displayed by these two oasis in question, is very liable to short distance. Then there came an the slowness of the machinery arriv- Well, now, I'm off! and for the next they said was a black frost, and that the ball to Barr, who in an adroit ing here. It is now coming and we month or so my headquarters will be was colder, and the third night must manner shot it through the goal , are making most excellent progress. like General Pope's, in the saddle; have been some other colored frost, for whilst the noble goal-keeper was looking for his hat. This ruther and the company has 800 Mexicans wear out, it will be the sad- From the "Papudos" we could see dismayed but did not discourage the on its pay-roll. The engine founda- dle. Bang go the whips, out go the town of Canelus, and my mule gallant Swifts. Bailey now got the hundred thousand agriculturists, who | Central railroad; Victor M. Braschi, tions are nearly ready. The six large | the hind legs of my companion, trumpeted forth a sound of gladness, ball and made one of his famous runs, are warlike and fanatical. Their oc- Mexico; Albert Kimoen, R. J. Wid- blowers, each weighing 14.500 are and we go careening madly, like but it took us three hours to get down taking the ball with him to within a here and we are getting them in place. noble knights, with one spur each and into the town, where I must beg you few yards of the goal and passed it The iron work of the five furnaces is a lot of old tin cans jangling from at present to leave me to attend to cleverly to Bacon, who had hard lines up and we have five bricklayers here our saddle bows, through the princi- my preparatory studies for the priest- in scoring and just missed by a few inches. The swifts now settled down to work and would have scored had not their hands been so much in the way. I heard a bystander remark that they were like a workingman in a dress suit, their hands were in the way all the time. Nothing daunted by the many fouls, they pressed their opponents, so much so, that they had a sure goal had not Bailey used his > Furmston played a good game but had hard work to keep the members of his own club from taking the ball from him. Clarke now forced the game drawback to the game, as Ryan, the The concourse broke up shortly goalkeeper was sure to let it through kicked the ball as much as any one, but

Time was now called and all felt satisfied at the results of the game. It does great credit to the Swifts to Lady (engaging cook): "Why did | say that they prevented the wanderers from scoring the second time, conbe well rubbed with "Rofino," before Result.-Wanderers, I goal. Swifts, V

SPECTATOR.

A pathetic plea for a holiday was put forward recently by the Baboos employed in the Government Geological Department at Calcutta. They the office because "they were suffering from perspiration and a want of enthusiasm for their work,"

"Well you know, he doesn't speak asked the supreme authorities to close