comfort and a few beautiful pictures will suffice to make a dwelling de-sary to challenge the admiration of home is more intimate, just as society creases when, passing to the other bank, you enter Cambridge, the intellectual city, grouped around Harthe Athens of America. Then what shall we call Cambridge? Very fortunately Atticism is not translated here by means of transplanted Par-and Berlin delight to quarter troops.

surrounded by gardens whose trees interlace over the low fences. It is bridge gives one an impression of leisure and serenity. Is it a unique climate of Massachusetts, seems as if warmed from afar by the rays of an Italian sun; there stand a Venetian herself desires to show everything to her guests. It is she who planned this place them in this setting, the colon-

Each of these masterpieces—and of the Ca Doro and the Villa Livia.

city of thought. Boston is called pedestrians by a facade de palais. The

This impression of intimacy in-

Frederic R. Guernsey Editor. L. C. Simonds.....Associate Editor.

Cooper Jackson News Editor. J. H. Green Commercial Editor. Mexican Telephone

The Mexican Herald receives by direct wire from San Antonio, Texas, the telegraphic news service of the Asso-All the telegrams in The Herald are copyrighted, right of translation re- that the mortality among diphtheria whose high-flung, menacing si ter, September 5, 1895.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Daily Herald, 6 months, U. S. Gold 4.00 Daily Herald, 1 month, U. S. Gold 1.00 Sunday Herald, 1 year, U. S. Gold 2.00 Great Britain, daily, 1 year, $28, Mex. Great Britain, Sunday, 1 year, $6, Mex. In the Republic-

Daily, per month...... Sunday, per year...... Payment abroad to be made in drafts on New York and London. No receipts are valid unless hearing! Subscribers falling to receive their papers regularly, should notify the gests its submarine qualities. business office at once. When a change of address is desired, both the old and Address all communications to The Mexican Herald, and not to individuals connected with the paper. Lottery advertisements are not published in any edition of The Herald. The Herald is printed on paper from new address must be given.

the San Rafael mills of Mexico. AGENTS FOR THE HERALD. Acambaro.... Pedro Banuelos.

Cardenas.....J. H. Dillon. C. Camargo......A. Arellanos. ChihaahuaRobert Schneider. Coatzacoalcos......Henry Van Wert. Guanajuato...Am. News & Curio Store. Jalapa.... Teofilo Flores. Matehuala.... D. Briones.

Isthmus of Panama. Vibert and Dixon. American Representatives. Wm. E. Clark......New York. 91 Wall Street. 140 Dearborn Street.

European Representative. Percy F. Martin.....London 150 Strand, W. C.

chispazos &

has gone "dry." What's in a name?

Can it be said that boycotting is one of the "ways that are dark and tricks that are valn," or that in thus doing that "the heathen Chinec is peculiar?" The Pope not only received J. Pier-little prayer for his prosperity, as if Toronto. he needed any more. A girl only S years old, foiled negro burglar at Atlantic City girl discovered him.

The state of the s Mrs. Eddy comes out for universal peace and arbitration of international disputes, but thinks that battleships Illogical Man. powder dry."

Children and a second

The second second The London Saturday Review, which rarely finds things agreeable kind heart or excellent intentions can thing came from Parls." Shall I risk a ceiling so warm and at the same in the great republic of the west, says make up for an uncompromising ex- the observation that you would have time so reserved, is of a delicious there accompanied by papa.

nius evolved by American politics.

are to be 1,000 feet long. Why not cess.-Ladies' Field. bridge the Atlantic and have done with it? The London "tubes," built by Yerkes, a financial genius, have failed to pay the fixed charges, and the competition of the motor buses is alleged as the cause. The state of the s bad effects of the pounding with the Sera, Milan. Big Stick. He annexes railways in a persistent manner.

Chester Pike, Pa., learned that the theirs.-Richmond Times-Dispatch. cause of his physical trouble was two broken ribs.

THE WILLIAM FITTHER, received a loaf aplece and re-

C. W. Lienau.....Asst. Business Mgr. | the Socialist movement is mainly pro- | mate documents. "Tell me what com-THE MEXICAN HERALD, Ltd. | letarian, in Italy, it is predominant- | pany you keep," said the old proverb. | ly middle class and professional. In You might add, "Show me your house | PAUL HUDSON.....General Manager. probably no other country, except and I will tell you who you are." .106-Biz. Russia, are there so many Socialists | The American house, in the imagi-... No. 637. among the scholars, scientists, and nation of Europe, is the skyscraper,

The Populist presidential date in the northern republic is only Daily, 6 months...... 6.00 tionist candidate when the November 2.50 race is finished.

The total disappearance of the Lesthe counter signature of the manager. lie M. Shaw presidential boom sug-

Children of the second nine-years-old cemetery at Nome, I Alaska, and it is paying.

down which he was sliding by two changed. Aguascalientes......A. P. Culver. bulldogs, and it was necessary to call Jak XX Chim

Cordoba..Tropical News & Supply Co. has offered a reward for information of Boston and recall the British El Oro.......Wilson and Hodgins. wrote the name of his daughter Alice liles—the McClellans, for instance, Guadalajara....American News Store. saying the young woman was seeking to inhabit it. A rich old lady recently Tabasco Tagebiatt: "Last Christmas, some unknown benefactor in the of her ancestors. Oaxaca....Eusebio Leon. federal capital shipped us, free of all Oaxaca...... Thomas Heredia charges, a resewood relitop desk, and Yorw that one may study the inner nishings and their pictures, one may across the calm waters of the stream Little Lamb, but it has been reserved Orizaba........Orizaba News Store in an unsigned typewritten note beg- life of the home. The Boston houses, best keep silent. You view them with where John Paul Jones built his fa- for a small town in the Brazilian Orizaba......Jose Maria Luna y Cla. | ged our acceptance of the same. We whether large or small, are all built a regret akin to that which you ex- mous Rangor or not, a dark form state of Minas Geraes to produce the Queretaro.... E. Olarte. letter from General Agramonte en- munal pasture, today an ornament to megalo-maniacs in the Champs-Ely- Philbrick is on his way to bid his dead gather that a certain 'poor, but hon-San Antonio. Louis Book & Cigar Co. closing his check for a yearly sub-the city, the oldest of them are sees. Salina Cruz.......Arturo Martinez. scription we noted a similarity, the grouped. There is nothing about them | That cultivated Americans can San Geronimo......Chiapas News Co. "y's" in both his note and that of the to attract attention. Their fronts are nevertheless achieve perfection San Luis Potosi.....G. L. Chavarria. Now we may venture a shrewd guess nal display, no sculptures or embel- ample—a single example, it is true, Veracruz..... Ernesto Lux. are one and the same. Zacatecas......Jose M. Medica.

nies that the alleged Black Hand so- and custom. But everything bears the rises solitary. At the door two lions cities is of Italian origin. His majesty time has added more grace than the doges. You enter; and, instead of the speaks by the card. It is only a mas- builders intended. You discern traces field of snow you crossed a moment querading name for gangs of hardly of a natural and spontaneous life. And before, you perceive an inner court organized criminals.

92 members 54 are lawyers, and in the a brilliant note to white or red fa-House of Representatives there are cades. Bostonians cherish a quasi-re-fountain, statues, and sarcophagi. The parish of Acadia in Louisiana 238 lawyers and 152 members who ligious reverence for these time-tinted which you have time only to glance Awakened From Slumber.

THE FOREIGN PRESS.

Back to the Towns.

With the development of agriculture there has come industrial development, and there are now found within the limits of the Dominion of

SEC. The Human Machine.

It is more efficient than any enby gine and will outlast five locomolocking him in a room and then tele- tives. It will keep in order three times ing her mother's jewelry box when the times as long as a motor-car. For a given amount of fuel it will do twice as much work as any other machine. -Lectura, Madrid.

are, for the present, necessary for | The men who make jokes about preserving peace among nations. feminine irrationality and shortcom-"Trust in the Lord and keep your ings, who consider women as inferior beings, generally make an exception in favor of the female members of their own families. As all men do the All roads lead to Rome, says the same, where are the inferior womproverb, and Miss Elkins is going en to be found?—Tageblatt, Berlin.

Beauty Before Brains.

Cult of the Hotel. great hotels were suppressed, London say, the London of society, the theater, literature, politics, art and fashlon. The hotel is one of the essential

Too Cheap to Sell.

≥≈ Needs Some Enlightenment.

Castro talks like a man who hasn't that of Mme. S---, whose refined Hearing that bread could be ob- heard about those Yankee gunnery hospitality is highly appreciated-are tained free in Cleveland, three Bul- records at Magdalena Bay.—Denver not, as in New York, an affirmation color in laws as well as women's hats her family. It is said that she had engarians walked from Toledo, 120 Republican.

TARDIEU ON BOSTON.

In a society which everything tends to render uniform, the home, the in-Whereas in almost every country | terior, is the most eloquent of inani-

five or forty-two stories—that of forty-two, at present being constructed Mr. Thomas Darlington, the New i. New York, holds the record for the York city health commissioner, says | moment—the gigantic "grattle-cell"; patients in that city has been re- houette, reaching into the clouds, Registered as second class mail mat- duced from 40 to 3 per cent. by the plunges the pedestrian into the dark-Cambridge has the look of a big use of antitoxin specially developed | ness of a street transformed into a country town, with wooden, houses by the experts in the health depart- chimney by a formidable gust of air. In the United States, Canada, Central ment. Wonderful results in curing tu- The skyscrapers are, to be sure, the and South America:
Daily Herald, 1 year, U. S. Gold. $7.00 berculosis have been attained by the most striking element in the physiog-th the latter treatment. are not the principal element. In the scientific comradeship of excellent nomy of an American city. But they quality. Only a few of the more fashbusiness section, where land is dear ionable ones live in Boston. Camand space limited, the Americans snatch from the sky the room denied by the earth. But every American setting for a life of toll amid librarwants to have "his" house and whenever he can gets it. The apartment us say, of President Eliot, Mr. house, enough like ours as regards its Charles Norton and Mr. exterior and arrangement, is an offshoot of the hotel; commonly you rent furnished suites and don't mean stay. In the east, the normal setting industrious intellects, open to all style, built in 1623, this strange man of American life is the individual or men and the affairs of Europe-a house, large or small, simple A gold mine has been found under sumptuous, but where everybody truly "chez soi" and where each roof ish movement that shakes their coun- fields is done in the summer time and shelters only one family—a legacy of the colonial era, a lasting memento After chasing a burglar over roof- of a time already remote enough to the idea in a world where deeds rule. cient mansion are forsaken for the detops in St. Louis, Police Officer have created a tradition, yet near Beard was treed on a telegraph pole enough to have left its habitudes un-

> This contrast is striking in the olde: parts of New York, when you leave the monstrous buildings of Broadway and enter Washington square. H. W. Hadley of Lake City, Iowa, the three-story houses are like those six months out of the year, maintainthere is sure to be a ballroom. sold one of these houses for a royal sum, and a friend of mine expressed his surprise that she should have thus > void results here from this harmony, still uninhabited, about five hundred Mayone speak of a style? No. Nev- yards beyond the new musee des ertheless one feels one's self in the Beaux-Arts, a great house of the Ve-Now it is the King of Italy who de- presence of an architecture of usage netian style and of very simple lines nothing but the artificial is deprived filled with flowers; its balmy atmos-In the Senate at Washington, out of by little, altered by the sunlight, add panes, witnesses of bygone days and to their owners, something like titles of nobility. Inside, always the same arrangements. The houses are deep and nar- house and collected, one by one, to row. The drawing room looks out upon the street. The dining room gives upon the court. No door separates them. Heavy curtains, almost alare dark and gloomy. In Boston there order. The other is the Raphael room. is more space. The Beacon street room, with also a Mantegna and a Regarding his peculiar mode of life houses, especially, are flooded with Botticell. In the third story, the Ve- Mr. Philbrick said "It may seem Morgan have knives up their sleeves light; for they look out at the rear ronese room and the Titlan room. strange to some people that I should for each other in connection with the upon the Charles river, a great arm There you come upon the "Enleve- have such views, but when you take it of the sea cut by bridges, where the ment d'Europe," which Rubens called into consideration the fact that I winter sunshine shimers upon the ice. the best picture in the world. A have never married and have lived phoning the police. He was investigat- as long as a printing press and twelve There you find admirable libraries for bronze bust by Benvenuto is the most alone since the death of my parents men of studious tastes. And I know magnificent thing I have ever seen. I I really do find solace in going to the several where, before the open space mention only from memory the paint- tomb and talking to my dear father | arched by the almost invariable ings by Velasquez, another Botticelli, and mother. I am certain that she bright blue American sky, celebrated a Pourbus, a Van der Meer, an An- looks after me to this day just as works have been cheerily produced— tonis Moor, and a Tintoretto, to say much as she did when I was a little such, for instance, as James Ford nothing of the modern pictures. You fellow and roamed these fields in Rhodes's "History of the United are simply dazed.

The furnishings are generally of a this is the point I would emphasize confused style. To the newly fur- is shown off with consummate art. nished houses I prefer that in which The wood-carvings and the tapesthis mélange of styles melts into a tries, of which there are four—the whole slightly out of date. Young Gothic ones especially, are really in-Americans jeer these old armchairs, comparable—give the pictures a most with their yellow silk upholstery of appropriate setting. The Dutch room, the days of the empire or of Louis with its tapestries purchased one by Philippe. They will show you proud- one and patiently tacked together so People who try to make out that a ly a drawing room in which "every- as to cover the entire wall, and with that Mr. Bryan is the one man of ge- terior simply do not know life. The known it, and that I have a warmer tonality. Another room is done in only possible substitute for beauty is heart for what comes from Boston? Spanish leathers of wonderful beauty. with charm, will take a woman but a city, which is the greatest book-buyer twenty years, a collection of such am-The newest planned ocean liners very short way on the road to suc- in America—a fact which our French plitude—whose intrinsic value, howpublishers have overlooked to their ever great, is trifling when compared hurt—are a never-failing ornament. with its artistic value—could have And the warm tone of the binding been got together in this corner Descendant of General Whipple. lights up the faded coloring of the of America; nothing but the most far-'Hotel" is a French word, but a hangings. There results an ensemble, seeing intelligence, aided by the most thoroughly British institution. If its a sort of moral and material unity, tenacious persistence, could have at one side from Governor Wentworth. You discover in Boston what is so tained this result.

But they make less show than else-Boston Evening Transcript. where. Even the largest and most elegant houses-such, for instance, as

Mr. Harriman does not show any factors of London life.—Corriere della houses, though maintained by people numerous. But what more natural? resides has passed through the vicisof wealth, there are no butlers and The Americans have not completed situdes that beset the early settlers of no valets. This is because in the north their artistic education, but they will Maine and New Hampshine, and has there is a dislike for negro servants, eventually, you may be sure, for some withstood the havoc of wars as well as who, in want of better, are the great of them have already arrived at full the ravages of time. Probably the reason some orators resources of the south, and even of mastery. Mme. G.'s house, in its rare | It is known that the house was at-After treating himself two months are so been for free speech is that Washington. It is also because cus- perfection, affords them an accom- tacked by Indians on three different for indigestion, A. Morris Collins of they know they could't get a cent for toms have remained patriarchal. plished model, which they will take occasions and at one time the redskins There are great fortunes in Boston, pains in imitating.—André Tardieu, in succeeded in gaining an entrance and lightful, and nobody thinks it neces-Kittery, Me., April 13.—Communing reverently every day as he believes, with the spirits of his ancestors, Harrison J. Philbrick, descendant of the erratic but beloved old colonial governor of New Hampshire, Binney Wentworth, has fitted up the family tomb near his home as a living room, and there spends many hours of his vard university and proud of being days and nights talking with his father and mother, who died years ago. The interior of the tomb he has decorated with flowers, and from early spring until late fall, beautiful blosthenons, like those in which Munich some spread their fragrance there. He has placed a small table near the entrance, and there sits, sometimes reading, sometimes thinking, but ever dreaming of his dear ones.

LEGAL FASHIONS.

IN TOMB OF ANCESTORS.

Though not a Spiritualist, never having attended a seance or a Spiritthere that the professors live, in a qualist meeting in all the sixty years of his life, Mr. Philbrick believes that for Women and Children. in the company of his dead, sweet converse is held and advice on troublesome affairs of life given.

les and fields. The houses-those, let Lives in House 238 Years Old.

Back from the main road from Portsmouth, on the banks of Crooked James-interpret their occupants. Lane river, a branch of the Piscata-They are the ideal asylum of those qua, and in a house of the old coloniar ideas, widely informed concerning the resides. But the tomb of his ancestors is his little apart, perhaps, from the fever-living room and when his work in the try, but confident of the efficacy of when winter keeps him from outdoor moral action to master it, apostles of labor, the spacious rooms of the an-Boston charms a Frenchman by lights this strange man finds in the reason of what it contains of the his- tomb. toric and the traditional. Washington! He is not a fanatic, and the neigh-

has also its grace, though of a dif-|bors from the country side admire the | stones. ferent origin; nothing, or almost noth- polished gentleman of the old school, ing, at the national capital suggests his kindly manner and his heart ever the past. A man lives in Washington ready for some good deed.

ing his real home elsewhere. The Faces Crooked Lane River.

er than to live in. If a householder Within fifty feet of the doorway has room enough and money enough, leading from the house and facing the river a white marble tomb has How shall one describe these pal- been built into the hill. In this tomb which is now owned by this strange in the strange in aces without an offence either against | more than a generation ago veracity or against their owners? placed all that was mortal of Mr. sacrificed to love of gold the cradle Some of them, especially two or three Philbrick's grandfather, his father of the most modern ones, fairly and his mother. Every night since It is in Boston rather than in New scream, while, as regards their fur-then, whether the moon casts its rays geod night.

portance on which Mr. Philbrick is of his kind. This animal went everyundecided he will remain in the silent where with its mistress, even attendtomb for hours until the spirit of his ing mass on Sundays and feast days. father or his mother communicates to A short time ago the lady died, but the him the course that he should pursue. the sheep still continues his religious These instructions he obeys implicitly, exercises. When he hears the church and he claims that they have always bell ringing he trots off to church worked out to his advantage. At times and listens atttentively to all that he will don the freedom suit that his goes on, inally leaving unostentagrandfather wore on the day that he tiously with the rest of the congregareached his majority, and if weather is stormy he will close the heavy door of the vault.

The floor and walls of the tomb are always kept well and supplied with sweet flowers.. Mr. Philbrick of beauty. Here and there window phere, in full contrast to the rude day and seating himself at a cozy reading table he has placed shuts himself from the outer world.

at, for the creator of this lovely im-To the reporter he declared that pression, Mme. J. G., awaits you and it I'on several different occasions it was necessary for him to arise at a very lawing gambling at races in the Disearly hour to attend to the important matters. He has gone to the tomb nades, the balconies, and the mosaics and expressed a desire to be awaken- gamblers in New York, is also under ed at a stated time, and at the hour Republican control. Of the two Re-In the second story, two rooms only mentioned he declares that the voice publican senates, however, the one in ways open, leave the eye free to tra- yet perfect. One is consecrated to the of his father or his mother roused Washington is much to be preferred. - Canada avenues of employment for all verse the house. In certain cities, like Flemings, and the Dutch-Rubens. him from slumber and that when It shows a gleam of moral sense. pont Morgan cordially, but borrowed those whose bent is towards occupa- Washington, where the buildings are Rembrandt, Van Dyck are represented wide awake he is certain that he saw Springfield Republican. the banker's fountain pen to write a tions other than farming.—Daily Star, crowded back to back, the rear rooms there by a dozen works, all of the first the form of his parent leaving the > search of strange flowers and rowed my boat about the waters of this stream in search of sectuded nooks in which to solve my school day problems. Every piece of furniture that you see in this old house is dear to me and brings back pleasant rec-

"And why should I not have a sin- FREEZERS" cere reverence for the relics of the past? Does it seem right that the ad- 1 vice of my parents should be lost to me just because they have passed through that strange mysterious change that we mortals call death? I do not care what the world thinks or brains, and even brains, unless allied Books, one of the luxuries of this You ask yourself how, in less than future just as I have done in the past until I myself am laid to rest beside my forefathers."

As well as tracing his descent on Mr. Philbrick comes from old revowould no longer be London—that is to often lacking in New York and Here is a rejoinder to the easy irony lutionary stock, one of his ancestors Washington—rust, memories, a past. which Europe, with a humor common having been Major General William The staff of servants is modest, es- to the aged, delights to heap upon Whipple of the continental army, pecially by comparison. In many young America. Faults of taste are | The old colonial house in which he

Le Temps of Paris, translated for the carried off one of the inmates, a little girl of four. A ransom was demanded, but it was years later when [] she was rescued from the savages Blue appears to be the fashionable and again taken into the bosom of of business success. A maximum of this spring .- Chicago Evening Post. | tirely forgotten her native tongue and |

LA DAMA ELEGANTE.

Great assortment of fine laces. We announce to our numerous customers that we have just received a complete stock of Catalanian Hand Made Inces, Pure Linen Dressing Gowns and Handkerchiefs, and Fine Linen Made and Embroidered Shirts

We are exclusive agents for "La Toja" mineral salts soap. FRANCISCO PEREZ Y CIA.

to the day of her death she spoke weeks were and the spoke with the spoke were the spoke with th broken English.

House Ancient Mansion.

The windows of this ancient mansion are of the three and a half light variety in vogue during the stirring times which preceded the American revolution and from cellar to attic one may see furniture and pictures that were all in Washington's time. One of Mr. Philbrick's dearest treasures is an expensive jewel case containing facsimiles of the famous crown jewels. These gems are cut from the clearest crystals and in every respect are exact duplicates of the original

In the guest chamber can be seen | the property of Mr. Philbrick's ancestor, Robert Cutt, who in the year 1625, married Mary Hall in the West Indies and later settled in Water-

It was General Whipple's father who married the daughter of Robert 🔯 |Cutt and removed to the very house | [7] character of Kittery.

Everyone knows the story of Mary's "From the Reflexo, of Curvello, we | est' woman possessed a sheep of a If there is a matter of great im-|size exceeding the normal for a beast| the tion. Lately he has gone out more than ever and is always to be seen at processions, weddings and funerals and when he feels the mood on him! goes to the theater or the circus. He has become the pet of the town and is treated almost like a human being."

Really after such a touching exhibition the least the inhabitants can do is to join the vegetarian league.

MORAL SENSE IN THE SENATE.

There is no party capital to be extracted from the action of the United States senate in passing the bill outtrict of Columbia, for the other senb ate, which has saved the skin of the

HUNT COVER!

Erie matter amount to a warning for innocent by-standers to hunt places of real safety.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

THE ICE CREAM

Are the Best

2 Qts...$7.00 3 Qts...$8.00

4 Qts...$9.00

The American Grocery Co.,

ra. Independencia 2.

"You can jump on it, trample on it, but it will come up, smiling every time."

CALMAN'S ELASTIC FLOOR VARNISH. Ask for "Marca Aguila." O. H. GARIES Taller de Pintura

Mexico.

Esquina 3a. Independencia y ia. Lopez No. 1. News Store, Gante 1.

El Paso Herald on Sale At Blue Book Store and American to investigate this New Method of Dictating Letters into the

Edison Commercial Phonograph

LEADING BUSINESS FIRMS in the U.S. are using it extensively. TIME IS SAVED BY ITS USE.

From twice to three times the number of letters can be dictated and written daily... PROMPT REPLIES are possible when the business man requires but one reading of a letter and dictates a spontaneous reply, sometimes saving a day in its despatch. CALLERS, EMERGENCIES. LOOKING-UP DATA, TELE-cause loss of time to your stenographer. Time saved is money made. Three watchwords: ACCUR-ACY, PRODUCTION and DESPATCH.

PHONING, &c., do not

SATISFACTIONE GUARANTEED. MEXICAN NATIONAL B PHONOGRAPH CO. Retail Store 1a, San Francisco

No. 4. (Opposite Hotel Iturbide) General offices: Sta. Clara 20/2, [Mexico, D. F. Apartado 2117.

Do You Know? Experience and Science Together With Modern Machinery

Enables you to buy the BEST and FRESHEST CANDIES

moera,

Manufacturers of High Grade Candies Exclusively.

MADE FRESH EVERY HOUR.

SPANISH LACE "LA CIUDAD DE BRUSELAS."

2a. Calle do la Monterilla No. 8.

Bentin Garcia y Cia., S. en C.

Direct Importation of Hand Made Dressing Gowns, Handkerchiefs, Collars, Red Sets, All Manu-I factured at Mugia, Spain. Complete assortment of white clothing from the Canaries, pure linen, hand embroidered by women. Skirts. corset covers, night shirts, skirts.

drawers, pillow slips, pillow covers.

Aprons and het sets. We sell every thing at extremely LOW PRICES.